Raphael Tuck & Sons' ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.

--Bay of Naples.—"Naples," says one traveller, "is a Paradise inhabited by devils!" But they are amusing and very good-natured devils. The spirit of fun seems irrepressible and prolonged gravity impossible. To enjoy life is the apparent aim of every hour. Only here surely could the tavern-sign, now removed, have proclaimed—"Eat and drink joyously for who knows if we shall meet again, or if in the next world we shall find an inn!"
